Where do we go from here?

And so, reader, farewell to Sherlock Holmes! I thank you for your past constancy, and can but hope that some return has been made in the shape of that distraction from the worries of life and stimulating change of thought which can only be found in the fairy kingdom of romance.

Arthur Conan Doyle (Preface to The Case Book of Sherlock Holmes)

Only years of practice will teach you the mysteries and bold certainty of a real gardener, who treads at random, yet tramples on nothing.

Karel Čapek (The Gardener's Year [Zahradníkův rok] (1929))

Reflection

---

- What was the most surprising thing in this class?
- What do you think is most likely wrong?
- What do you think is the coolest thing you've learned?
- What do you think you're most likely to remember?
- How do you think this course will influence you from now on?
- What (if anything) did you hope to learn that you didn't?

I enjoy teaching this class
I want to make it even better!
